

Discover Venice

Venice, in northeastern Italy, is a blend of architectural splendor, historical richness, and a unique aquatic lifestyle. Known for its canals, grand palaces, and landmarks like St. Mark's Basilica, Venice is a timeless marvel. Visitors can explore its streets, enjoy exquisite cuisine, and immerse in its cultural tapestry.

St. Mark's Basilica (Basilica di San Marco)

A masterpiece of Byzantine architecture, St. Mark's Basilica is known for its stunning mosaics, intricate designs, and historical significance. The Piazza San Marco (St. Mark's Square) surrounding the basilica is also a must-visit, offering a grand view of Venetian architecture.

Doge's Palace (Palazzo Ducale)

Located adjacent to St. Mark's Basilica, the Doge's Palace is a magnificent example of Venetian Gothic architecture. It served as the residence of the Doge of Venice and is renowned for its opulent rooms, grand halls, and the famous Bridge of Sighs.

Food

Enjoy exquisite seafood dishes like sarde in saor and risotto al nero di sepia, showcasing the Adriatic's treasures. Discover charming bacari offering cicchetti, including baccalà mantecato and polpette, and indulge in fritto misto for a taste of fried seafood perfection. Conclude your culinary journey with a classic tiramisu or gelato, ensuring a memorable and delicious experience in the heart of this unique city.

Boat Tours

A boat trip in Venice is a magical exploration of its iconic canals, showcasing the city's charm from a unique perspective. Glide on a gondola through the Grand Canal or take a vaporetto for a practical yet picturesque journey. Whether meandering through waterways or venturing to nearby islands, a boat trip in Venice promises an enchanting experience, immersing visitors in the allure of this distinctive and watery city.

Venetian Lagoon

The Venetian Lagoon, surrounding Venice, is a vast wetland with diverse ecosystems. Explore the lagoon's islands, including the Lido, where sandy beaches meet the Adriatic Sea, and the island of Torcello, known for its natural beauty and historic sites. Embrace the serenity of the Venetian Lagoon as you navigate its waterways, passing through marshes and islands, and witness the unique ecosystems that sustain a variety of bird species.

Biennale Gardens

Located in Venice, these gardens provide a peaceful retreat and showcase a variety of plant species. They serve as the main venue for the Venice Biennale art and architecture exhibitions, combining artistic installations with a tranquil natural setting. Amidst the greenery, discover art installations and sculptures that blend seamlessly with the natural surroundings, creating a harmonious fusion of culture and nature in the heart of Venice.

